

Distress monitoring form

This monitoring form will help you better understand patterns to your distress. Identifying these patterns may help you select the best strategies to better manage your distress.

Situation Who were you with? What were you doing? Where were you? When did it happen?	Thoughts What were you thinking? Were any images going through your mind?	Emotions Which emotions were you feeling? How strong were those emotions (from 0 to 10)?	Bodily sensations What bodily sensations were you feeling? How strong were those sensations (from 0 to 10)?	Behaviours What did you do? How did you react? How did you cope?